

Happy
Holidays!

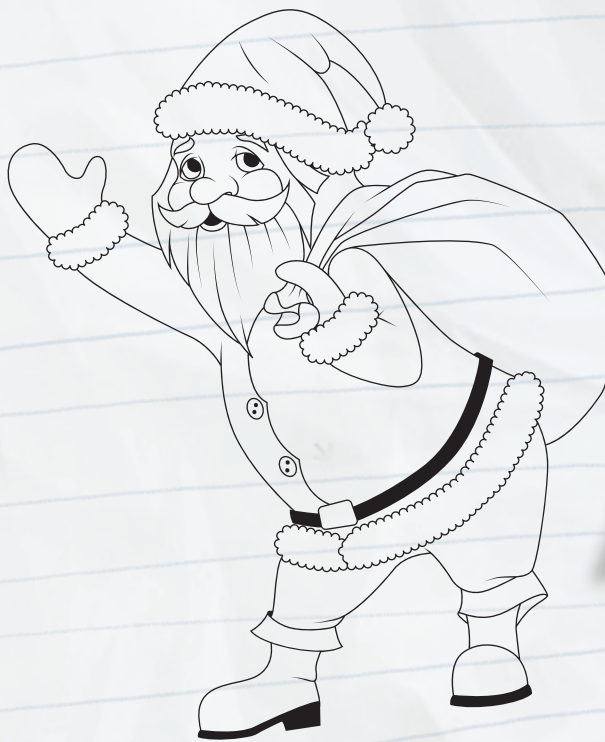

Hello!

We're so excited about Dear Santa and hope your little readers are as well! Whether it's the holiday season or you're celebrating Christmas in July, this is a classic story about writing letters to Santa and taking responsibility, but also knowing that you are going to make mistakes sometimes...and that's OKAY! After reading the story, please have children write their own letter to Santa on the attached piece of stationery talking about being the best version of themselves they can be. Also, if you're looking for more Christmas fun, read this book along with Cookies for Santa! There's a super delicious recipe for Santa's favorite cookie: Chocolate Krinkle Cookies. This recipe is included at the back of the book and makes for a fun activity to do with little readers and bakers! If baking cookies isn't possible, give kids paper plates and ask them to draw and color the plate of cookies they'd like to leave out for Santa. We hope you have a jolly good time!

—Your friends at Sourcebooks

Dear Santa,

Sincerely,

