

SHE'S GONE BY DAVID BELL

DISCUSSION GUIDE

1. Hunter makes YouTube videos to express his innocence and to seek help in finding Chloe. Why do you believe he took this approach to proving his innocence and do you think this is useful method? What approach would you have taken?
2. Hunter and his family are still grieving the death of Hunter's mother. How does his mother's death affect Hunter's response to Chloe's disappearance? How does his father handle the accusations against Hunter?
3. What do you think of the relationship between Hunter and Olivia? Is it a believable sibling dynamic?
4. When Hunter returns to school after the accident, he faces suspicion and harassment. How would you handle this experience and what advice would you provide to someone like Hunter?
5. Chloe's mother accuses Hunter of killing Chloe. Why does she lash out at Hunter in such a public way? What do you think is her goal?
6. Hunter and Daniel were very close growing up but have drifted apart over the years. Do you think it is unusual to drift apart from a close friend once high school starts? How do the pressures of entering high school affect relationships?
7. Hunter is suspicious of anything Hannah has to say about Chloe's behavior on the night of homecoming. Do you understand why he doesn't fully trust Hannah?
8. Hunter forms an unlikely friendship with Mike Basher as they both try to figure out what happened to Chloe. Have you ever found yourself becoming friends with someone you didn't think you had anything in common with?
9. Hunter admires Ron as a teacher and a mentor but ends up being highly disappointed in his behavior. Have you ever been let down by someone you admire?
10. At the end of the book, Hunter learns what Chloe's parents knew about the events on the night of homecoming and the accident. Were you surprised to learn these things? Do you understand why they did the things they did? What would you have done in their shoes?
11. At the end of the book, Hunter remembers something that happened one day when he and Chloe were in the food court at the mall. Have you ever had a similar experience? What did Hunter learn from Chloe that day?
12. What do you imagine Hunter's life will be like going forward from the end of the book? Write a paragraph detailing this scenario.
