WHAT IS DIWALI?

Diwali is one of the most popular holidays in India. It is the celebration of light over dark, or good over evil. Diwali is also called Deepavali, which means "row of lights." During the festival, people decorate their homes with rows of oil lamps called diyas.

Many different people all over the world celebrate this Festival of Lights. The celebration lasts for five days. People share delicious food and sweets with family and friends. Some people wear new clothes and exchange gifts.

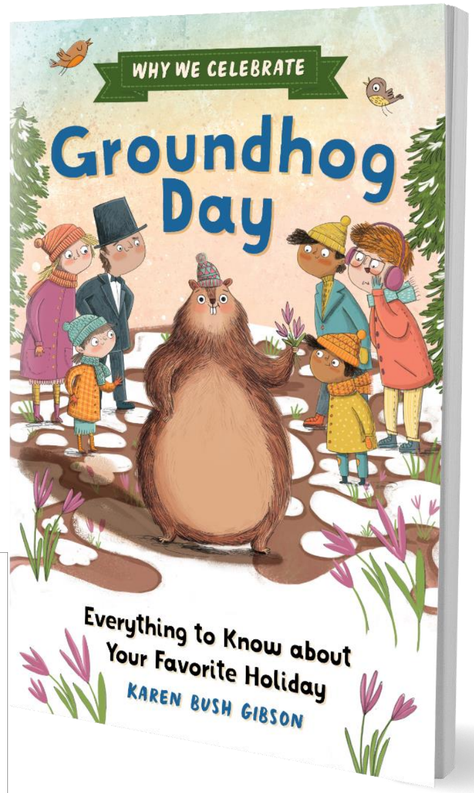

The holiday starts in late fall, usually during October or November. The date changes every year because it is based on the Hindu calendar. This lunisolar calendar is based on the movements of the moon and the sun.

Meet Our Author!

Diane Alber has had a passion for art since she held her first crayon at age two, which inspired her to subsequently earn a Bachelor's Degree in Fine Arts from Arizona State University. She is a wife and a mother of two young energetic children who love books. She became inspired to start writing and illustrating books because she saw a need for a book that inspired art and creativity in children. She also hopes that this book encourages parents to be proud of their children's artwork no matter what it looks like!

GETTING BACK TO WHERE I WAS

DAILY READINGS

- Day 1: Ezra 1–5
- Day 2: Ezra 6–10
- Day 3: Nehemiah 1–3
- Day 4: Nehemiah 4–7
- Day 5: Nehemiah 8–10
- Day 6: Nehemiah 11–13
- Day 7: Catch up on any readings you've missed.

THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH comes on the heels of the Jews' return to Jerusalem after the Babylonian exile ended. But while hundreds of men were rebuilding the wall around Jerusalem and guarding against attacks from their enemies, their home life was in jeopardy. A famine had hit so hard that they had to mortgage their land just to get food for their families. The problem was that the nobles and officials lending them the money would charge them a high interest rate, and many of the men had to sell their children into slavery to pay off the debt.

Even when you're doing the work of the Lord, life still happens. The enemy couldn't get them one way, but he sure found a way in. He attacked their families. That's how the enemy is. If he can't get you one way, he'll get you another. The key is in how you handle the attack.

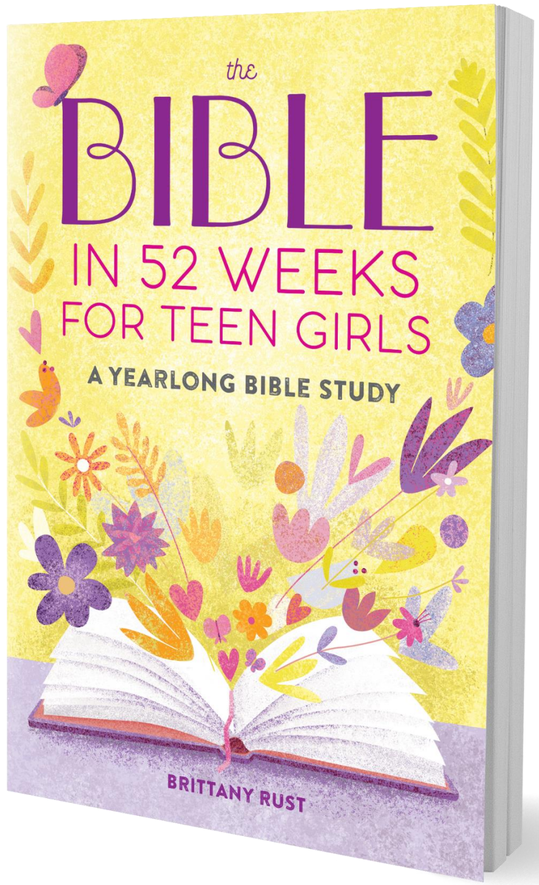

Nehemiah 5:1 says there was an outcry, and the men and their wives began to share their problems with Nehemiah. They cared enough about their families and their homes to fight on their behalf. They weren't afraid to tell Nehemiah what they needed. They didn't just accept what was going on. They had been putting their time in on that wall for the good of everyone—surely that had to count for something. So they got up the nerve to tell the truth and ask for what seemed to be the hard thing.

We all have to get to the place where we stop hiding behind the mask and tell the truth. If you're hurt, say you're hurt. If you're having a hard time making ends meet, say you're having a hard time making ends meet. Be honest with yourself and with God. Many of us have gotten off track and lost our focus. Many of us have lost some of ourselves because we've been pulled in other directions. We've lost our zeal. We've lost a little of our peace. We might have even lost the desire to persevere. Now be honest and tell God what you want. Tell Him your heart's desire. Don't be afraid to ask God for the hard thing. James 4:2 says, "You do not have, because you do not ask" (ESV). If we're going to get where we need to be, we can't be afraid to ask for it. God wants to bring about

WEEK 2

GIVING UP IS NOT AN OPTION

READINGS

Reading 1: Genesis 22–25
Reading 2: Genesis 26–29
Reading 3: Genesis 30–33
Reading 4: Genesis 34–36
Reading 5: Genesis 37–41
Reading 6: Genesis 42–46

IN THIS WEEK'S READINGS, we see women like Sarah and Rachel faced with unfair expectations, trying to make things work. Sometimes, when this happens to us, we are prone to making bad decisions, placing the people we love in danger, sacrificing our purposes, or giving us when we should keep going. Giving up is not just stopping but sometimes intentionally going in the wrong direction. We have a task in front of us that seems hard, so we ignore it and try something else. We start a passion project, but when fear creeps in we do something easier. Have you ever experienced this?

With the pressures and uncertainties of this world, it's easy to give up, and yet giving up is being disloyal to God. This is hard when circumstances don't feel or sound like blessings; we can ask Esau about this. Esau put his physical desires in front of his blessing and birthright. He gave up what God wanted him to have. He was later tricked by his own mother and brother. But what we learn is that God has a way of making what should cause heartache into a space of healing and restoration. It is when we don't give up that we open up pathways for God to do God's work. In Genesis 24, Rebekah said, "I will go." She made a choice. Make a choice today to not give up, remembering your gifts always make room for you. Yes, we often face evil, real lives, but wherever you go, just don't give up.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. Genesis 22–25: Sarah lived until she was 127 years old. Why don't you think she gave up?
2. Genesis 26–29: Rebekah was very involved in the blessings of Jacob and Isaac. How was she trying to serve God?
3. Genesis 30–33: Like Rachel, we all experience jealousy and hopelessness. How can you relate?
4. Genesis 34–36: How did God speak through the devastation in these chapters?
5. Genesis 37–41: In Genesis 39, Joseph was tempted yet able to think clearly in the moment. What can you learn from this?

142 ✦ HOW TO BE A SAINT

Saints Who Could Do Cool Shit

Being a mystic is very cool, and Catholic history is full of saints with mystic abilities. So if you are thinking of going down this road, you should get to know a few of your heavenly buds.

Saint Hildegard of Bingen (1098–1179)

Mystic abilities: visions

Aside from having a great name, Hildegard of Bingen was a prominent Catholic mystic and feminist. She started having visions as a child and was sent to a cloister (like a convent but more shut off from the world) when she was eight years old. In her visions, God encouraged little Hildie to write, and boy did she. Over her life, she cranked out books on religion and medicine; composed seventy-seven songs, a musical morality play, fifty homilies, and three hundred letters. She also invented her own language complete with an alphabet. Oh, and she didn't even start work on any of this until after the age of forty, which, in the twelfth century, meant she was a senior citizen.

"It's my latest idea. I call it the Squatty Potty." —Hildegard
